Strengthening teacher policy and development in Africa

UNESCO IICBA

- Established in 1999 as the only Category I Institute in Africa
- Mandated to strengthen teacher policy and development in Africa

What we do

1. Capacity Development

Levels of Capacity Development

Recent studies on teacher policy and development

- Politiques enseignantes et résultats d'apprentissages en Afrique Subsaharienne Résultats et Modèles
- Teaching Policies and Learning Outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Teacher Support and Motivation Framework

Where we do it

1. East Africa and Sahel Countries

We support teachers and policy makers to tackle educational issues in emergencies, conflicts and refugee settings, PVE-E and peace-building

2. Angola, Burundi, Guinea, Lesotho, Mali, Mozambique, Niger, Seychelles, South Africa, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe

We provide guidelines and technical support to the governments to formulate holistic teacher policies and frameworks.

3. Comoros, Ethiopia, Ghana, Kenya, Rwanda and Togo

We promote education for sustainable development, gender responsive education policy and practices and the use of ICTs in teacher training and teaching.

Next step & what this database will be used for ?

- Update the information on the website
- Translate the database into English
- Serve as a platform for African countries to share information about their teacher training institutions
- Support in better project/training planning and regional harmonization of teacher training and exchange
- Link it with teacher information management system (TMIS)
